THE COURT CLERKS OF MARYLAND

(In Maryland there are twenty-nine Clerks of Court. Twenty-three are elected to four-year terms to serve in the Circuit Courts of the first seven Judicial Circuits while the remaining six serve like terms in the six courts of the Eighth Judicial Circuit located in Baltimore City. There is also a Clerk of the Court of Appeals who is appointed by the Court. A series of biographical sketches of the Clerks of Court will be carried in these Statistical Compilations.)

JAMES LLOYD YOUNG

CLERK OF THE COURT OF APPEALS OF MARYLAND

Clerk of the Court of Appeals since July 1957, J. Lloyd Young originally entered the office as a junior deputy in April, 1927, being appointed by his father, the late James A. Young, Clerk of the Court at that time. The oath of office was administered to Mr. Young on July 1st by Theodore R. McKeldin, then Governor of Maryland, following Mr. Young's appointment to the position by the judges of the Court of Appeals.

A man long dedicated to the courts, Mr. Young was born in Cumberland, Maryland on August 20, 1901, scion of a family long prominent in Western Maryland and particularly in Allegany County. His grandfather, James W.

Young, twice was elected clerk of the Circuit Court for Allegany County. His father was elected five times as Clerk of the Court of Appeals, his last term expiring in November, 1942 after which date the office of clerk became appointive.

After completing his education in the public and business schools of Allegany County, Mr. Young for a time was associated in Cumberland with the Baltimore & Ohio Railroad Company, and subsequently with the Kelly Springfield Tire Co.

By virtue of his office, Mr. Young also is a member of the Board of State Canvassers of Elections, and under certain provisions of the state constitution he administers the oath of office to Maryland's presidential electors. As Clerk he is empowered to appoint, subject to the approval of the judges of the Court of Appeals, such deputy clerks as the requirements of his office may necessitate.

JAMES LLOYD YOUNG

COURT OF APPEALS

A record number of appeals - 344 - were filed in the Court of Appeals for hearing during its 1960 Term, the cut-off date having been February 28. The figure represents a 27 percent increase over the preceding year.

The largest number of cases for any prior year was 299, these being docketed in 1957.

More than half of the current appeals had been disposed of as of February 28, with opinions filed in 115. Of this group, 77 percent were affirmed or dismissed.

In addition to the cases on the regular appellate docket, there were 68 applications to appeal in Defective Delinquent cases and in cases under the Uniform Post Conviction Procedure Act. Two-thirds of these have been disposed of.

The jurisdictional origin of the appeals, in light of the recent division of the State into six appellate judicial circuits, is revealed for the first time in the chart on the following page.

(a) During the past several months this Court, in cooperation with the Clerk's office, has made a concentrated effort to clear from the dockets all old cases filed between 1947 and September, 1955. As a result, 513 cases in this age group have been closed. During the Spring and Summer of 1960, as a result of the same concentrated effort, in excess of 600 cases were closed out in the same manner. This tremendous volume of work is not reflected in the reports to the Administrative Office, except cases reported as a trial on Form AO#4, as cases instituted prior to September 1, 1955 are not reportable on the four pages of Form AO#3.

(In Maryland there are twenty-nine Clerks of Court. Twenty-three are elected to four-year terms to serve in the Circuit Courts of the first seven Judicial Circuits while the remaining six serve like terms in the six courts of the Eighth Judicial Circuit located in Baltimore City. There is also a Clerk of the Court of Appeals who is appointed by the Court. A series of biographical sketches of the Clerks of Court will be carried in these Statistical Compilations.)

G. BUCHER JOHN

CLERK OF THE CIRCUIT COURT FOR CARROLL COUNTY

G. Bucher John, who is serving his first term as Clerk of the Circuit Court for Carroll County, has lived for approximately sixty of his sixty-six years in Carroll County. Born near Roanoke, Virginia, July 1, 1895, the son of John Jay John and Sarah Bucher John, Mr. John moved to Maryland with his family when but six years of age.

Married to Edna Geiman, of Westminster, Maryland, on April 23rd, 1919, Mr. John has two children, a son J. Jean John, who operates the 300 acre home farm near New Windsor, Maryland, and a daughter, Mrs. Madeleine Black, who is secretary to the Superintendent of Montrose School for Girls. There are five grandchildren.

G. BUCHER JOHN

Between 1922 and 1945, Mr. John farmed his own land, with Land Surveying as a side line. In 1946, he was elected to the office of County Surveyor, in which capacity he served, having been elected on two subsequent occasions, until 1958 when he was elected to his present position.

Mr. John attends and is active in the affairs of the Church of the Brethren. A member of the Carroll County Farm Bureau since its beginning, he also is active in that organization as well as in the New Windsor Lions Club, and Medford Grange.

Mr. John said that "this being my first term as Clerk, I have considered it a challenge and have made numerous changes in the Recording Department to simplify and expedite the work."

THE COURT CLERKS OF MARYLAND

(In Maryland there are twenty-nine Clerks of Court. Twenty-three are elected to four-year terms to serve in the Circuit Courts of the first seven Judicial Circuits while the remaining six serve like terms in the six courts of the Eighth Judicial Circuit located in Baltimore City. There is also a Clerk of the Court of Appeals who is appointed by the Court. A series of biographical sketches of the Clerks of Court will be carried in these Statistical Compilations.)

Lawrence R. Mooney

Clerk of the Criminal Court of Baltimore City

Lawrence R. Mooney, Clerk of the Criminal Court of Baltimore City, is a careerist with more than forty-one years of service in the Baltimore courts. His appointment to his present position in 1952 by the Supreme Bench of Baltimore City, to fill a vacancy caused by the resignation of his predecessor, culminated some thirty-two years under the general supervision of that judicial body.

Admitted to the Bar by the Court of Appeals in 1929, following his graduation from the University of Baltimore Law School, Mr. Mooney received his early education in the public schools of Baltimore and at the Baltimore City College. He also completed courses in shorthand and bookkeeping at a local business college and studied accountancy at the Pace and Pace Institute of Baltimore.

First becoming associated with the courts in June 1920 when appointed as Assistant Cashier in the office of Stephen C. Little, then Clerk of the Superior Court of Baltimore City, Mr. Mooney continued in that capacity until November 17, 1924 when he was named as secretary-bailiff to the late Joseph N. Ulman, Associate Judge of the Supreme Bench of Baltimore City. He resigned this position November 10, 1941 to return to the Superior Court, accepting an appointment as Deputy Clerk. In this capacity he served for several years as a Court Clerk, later being assigned for duty as Clerk of the Supreme Bench, where he remained until his appointment to the Criminal Court position November 19, 1952. Twice since that date he has been elected to the office. His present term expires December 1, 1962.

Mr. Mooney served in the United States Navy during the first World War. In World War II, he was one of a group of four employees loaned by the Baltimore courts to staff an Advisory Board for Registrants. This governmental agency, under the general supervision of the late Chief Judge Samuel K. Dennis and two of his judicial associates, was created to assist individuals in answering the multitudinous questions in the registration forms required to be filed by all men between the ages of eighteen and sixty.

Referring to his assignment on the Board, Mr. Mooney said:

"The headquarters of this branch of the Selective Service Agency was located in the Court House and was headed by the Hon. Joseph R. Byrnes, now a judge on the Supreme Bench here in Baltimore. Working with him on a full time basis, in addition to myself, was the Hon. W. Albert Menchine, presently a judge in the Third Circuit sitting out in Towson, and Eugene Creed, who, I am confident, needs no introduction.

"This organization functioned for a period of two years, with the wholehearted support of the local legal profession, many of the lawyers contributing an average of two hours from their busy schedules each week.

"Judge Byrnes and his associates had worked out a plan under which between nine and five each day there was a constantly changing group of twenty lawyers available to answer questions, assist in filling in the registration forms, and to take affidavits. At times there would be as many as 300 registrants coming into the Court House for help in a single day."

Mr. Mooney also made reference to the many changes in the Court House during his years of service, stating that "the most obvious, of course, is the physical rejuvenation of the building a few years ago with all the open central court spaces being filled in and the space utilized for court rooms and offices."

He also pointed out that he had seen the entire personnel of the Bench change more than once, and that since he first took oath of office as bailiff there had been a total of 42 individual judges on the Bench in Baltimore, including those who were in office in November, 1924.

Born in Baltimore on September 17, 1896, Mr. Mooney resides at 1616 East 31st Street with his wife, the former Ella Savec, whom he married January 28, 1924. They have one son, Lawrence R. Mooney, Jr., who lives in New York City.

Mr. Mooney is a member of the Bar Association of Baltimore City, the Montfaucon Post of the American Legion, and of St. Bernard's Catholic Church. He served two terms as vice-president of The Maryland Court Clerk's Association.

THE ADMINISTRATIVE OFFICE OF THE COURTS
STATE OF MARYLAND

STATISTICAL COMPILATION

May 1961

621 Court House..Baltimore 2, Md.

May

ADMINISTRATIVE OFFICE OF THE COURTS
STATE OF MARYLAND

FREDERICK W. INVERNIZZI
DIRECTOR
JUDICIAL STATISTICAL ANALYST

621 COURT HOUSE
BALTIMORE 2, MARYLAND

With the biography of G. Merlin Snyder, Clerk of the Circuit Court for Washington County, immediately following herein, biographical sketches of one-third of the clerks of the courts have appeared in these statistical compilations. Information concerning several additional clerks has been obtained and is on file in the Administrative Office awaiting publication.

On page three herein appears statistical data of the work of the Court of Appeals through the third quarter of the 1960 Term of Court. Only 60 cases remain to be disposed of. Opinions have been filed in some 206 cases, 77 percent of which were affirmed. In addition, 59 opinions have been filed in disposing of applications to file appeals in Post Conviction and Defective Delinquent cases.

The rate of accretion in number of appeals being filed continues unabated. Cases docketed since March 1st, the first filing date for cases to be reviewed during the 1961 Term of Court, totaled 96, an eleven percent increase over 1960, which in turn was a record breaking year. In the event the rate of increase remains constant, appeals will aggregate 375 or more.

Governor Tawes having advised that summer working hours again will be in effect this year, the Administrative Office will be closed each day at 4:30 P.M. until Tuesday, September 5th, when the winter schedule will be effective. Upon advance notice, however, the Director or his assistant will be available at any hour.

On June 27 and 28, Mr. Invernizzi will attend the Judicial Conference of the Fourth Circuit (Federal) in Asheville, North Carolina. In July - the 10th - he will be the principal speaker at the Judicial Conference of the State of Rhode Island, the meeting being held in Providence. The subject of his talk will be "The Manner In Which Judicial Conferences are Organized and Conducted."

THE COURTS CLERKS OF MARYLAND

(In Maryland there are twenty-nine Clerks of Court. Twenty-three are elected to four-year terms to serve in the Circuit Courts of the first seven Judicial Circuits while the remaining six serve like terms in the six courts of the Eighth Judicial Circuit located in Baltimore City. There is also a Clerk of the Court of Appeals who is appointed by the Court. A series of biographical sketches of the Clerks of Court will be carried in these Statistical Compilations.)

G. MERLIN SNYDER

CLERK OF THE CIRCUIT COURT FOR WASHINGTON COUNTY

The tenth clerk of the Circuit Court for Washington County since its creation in 1777, G. Merlin Snyder has been associated with the office for almost 40 years. He originally qualified as a Deputy Clerk in 1922.

On March 16, 1954, Mr. Snyder was appointed Clerk of the Court by the late Honorable Joseph D. Mish, Chief Judge, and the Honorable George Henderson, former Associate Judge of the Fourth Judicial Circuit, to fill the vacancy created by the death of J. Guy Weagley, who died suddenly while in office. He was elected to the office in the fall of 1954 and again in 1958.

A native of Washington County, Maryland, Mr. Snyder was born October 27, 1900 in the Boonsboro District, the son of George E. Snyder and Fannie Miller Snyder.

He was graduated from the Boonsboro High School and in 1920-1921 attended Steward's Business College in Washington, D. C., where he specialized in the study of accountancy. Years later he undertook the study of law with LaSalle Extension University, and on December 29, 1931, was awarded the degree of Bachelor of Laws.

Married to the former Janet Miller, of Waynesboro, Pennsylvania, on April 15, 1922, Mr. Snyder lives with his wife at 803 Oak Hill Avenue in Hagerstown. The couple have four children, two sons and two daughters. A son, George E. Snyder, is engaged in the Dairy Products Business and has been a member of the State Senate since 1959; a son, James M. Snyder, has the agency for International Trucks; one daughter, Jean S. Hicks, housewife and pharmacist, resides in Charlotte, N. C., while another, Janet Anne Geyer, housewife, lives in Hagerstown. There are nine grandchildren.

The family worship in St. John's Evangelical Lutheran Church of Hagerstown, where Mr. Snyder served as treasurer for fourteen years. He has been a member of the church council for over twenty years. He holds membership in the following clubs and fraternal organizations: Kiwanis, Mason, Shrine, Order of the Eastern Star (Past Patron), Hagerstown Shrine Club and Tall Cedars of Lebanon. During 1949-50 he was president of the Broadway-Wayside School Parent-Teacher Association.

THE COURTS CLERKS OF MARYLAND

(In Maryland there are twenty-nine Clerks of Court. Twenty-three are elected to four-year terms to serve in the Circuit Courts of the first seven Judicial Circuits while the remaining six serve like terms in the six courts of the Eighth Judicial Circuit located in Baltimore City. There is also a Clerk of the Court of Appeals who is appointed by the Court. A series of biographical sketches of the Clerks of Court will be carried in these Statistical Compilations.)

PATRICK C. MUDD

CLERK OF THE CIRCUIT COURT FOR CHARLES COUNTY

Patrick C. Mudd has been Clerk of the Circuit Court for Charles County almost fifteen years, having first qualified for the office on December 11, 1956. Prior to that date he had served as a deputy clerk for approximately two months under Thomas B. R. Mudd, his predecessor in office.

The son of the late John F. and Amy Turner Mudd, Mr. Mudd was born April 12, 1919, in Bryantown, Maryland. After graduating from the Notre Dame High School in Bryantown, he attended the University of Maryland for two years (1937-1939) and subsequently was employed by the Maryland Light and Power Company at Waldorf, Maryland, until drafted into the Armed Forces.

Entering the Army on May 7, 1941, he received his basic training as a member of the Third Horse Cavalry Regiment at Fort Meyer, Virginia, and later served in the Tenth Armored Division, which helped to spearhead General Patton's historic drive through France and Germany.

While engaged in the Battle of the Bulge, Mr. Mudd was captured and held as a prisoner of war for five months. Not being assigned to any permanent stalag or prison, Mr. Mudd said he spent most of the time "on the move" in the vicinity of the Baltic Sea. He was liberated at Lindhorst near the Elbe River by American troops on Friday the thirteenth of April 1945, one day after his birthday.

Upon completion of his military service in September, 1945, he became associated with the Moreland Motor Company in Waldorf, Maryland, and remained with that organization until he entered his present office.

Mr. Mudd resides in Spring Hill, just outside of the town limits of La Plata, with his wife, the former Mary Ann Baldus, whom he married September 16, 1943, and their four children. He is Vice-President in the firm of Farrall and Mudd, Inc., retail merchants, located in La Plata; an active member of St. Vincent de Paul Society, and one of the organizers and enthusiastic supporters of the Charles County Little Baseball League.

(In Maryland there are twenty-nine Clerks of Court. Twenty-three are elected to four-year terms to serve in the Circuit Courts of the first seven Judicial Circuits while the remaining six serve like terms in the six courts of the Eighth Judicial Circuit located in Baltimore City. There is also a Clerk of the Court of Appeals who is appointed by the Court. A series of biographical sketches of the Clerks of Court will be carried in these Statistical Compilations.)

FRANK W. HALES

CLERK OF THE CIRCUIT COURT FOR WORCESTER COUNTY

Frank W. Hales, Clerk of the Circuit Court for Worcester County, has been affiliated with that office for ten years. First employed in August 1951, Mr. Hales served as Chief Deputy Clerk until September 1955, when he was appointed as clerk by the judges of the First Judicial Circuit, the incumbent, Mr. E. Wilfred Ross, having submitted his resignation. In 1958 he was elected to a four year term.

Since being in charge of the office Mr. Hales has made several changes in the mechanics of the operation, the most obvious being the institution of a flat filing system for both civil and criminal cases. He also has increased the floor space and improved working conditions in his vault, making the various dockets more readily available.

The son of William T. and Sallie M. Hales, Mr. Hales was born in their home July 25, 1930. They both are still living in the same house. Educated in the public schools of Worcester County, Mr. Hales graduated from the Snow Hill High School in 1946. He now lives at 203 Purnell Street with his wife, the former Joyce Snead, of Chinco-teague, Virginia, whom he married in September 1948. They have four children, two girls and two boys.

Following graduation from high school, Mr. Hales lived in Miami, Florida, for one year, and then returned home to join his father, a building contractor, for whom he worked as a carpenter. For five years immediately prior to entering the clerk's office, he was assistant manager of the American Store in Snow Hill.

Mr. Hales and his family attend the Whatcoat Methodist Church. He has been a member of its Official Board for three years, and the Superintendent of its Sunday School for the past two years. In addition he is assistant Scout Master of Boy Scout Troop #155, which is sponsored by the local chapter of the Rotary Club.

Hobbies listed by Mr. Hales include boating, swimming, water skiing and flying. Regarding his flying experience, Mr. Hales said he obtained a student pilot license by soloing in approximately six hours flying time, and his permanent private license on December 26, 1949, after flying 35 hours, the minimum flying time required by law. Thereafter he did considerable flying in a plane "owned by a local druggist who was kind enough to let me use it as if it were my own". Subsequently he became a charter member of the Assateague Aero Club of Ocean City. The plane owned by this group was demolished in an accident in which two men were killed. A plane is now available for use by private flyers at an Ocean City airport.

"Most of my flying," Mr. Hales said, "has been of a local nature in and around the peninsula of the Eastern Shore, in small two place aircraft such as Ercoupes, Piper Cubs, Taylor Crafts and Luscombes. From time to time Mrs. Hales would accompany me. I received my training from John E. Reed of the Laurel Airport in Delaware."

FRANK W. HALES

Costs totaling $47,642.90 have been paid to date by the State in 81 appeals by indigent defendants filed during the 1960 term of the Court of Appeals. Approximately half of this sum was expended for the printing of briefs and record extracts, the balance being nearly equally divided between transcripts and counsel fees. Sixty-seven different attorneys were involved in the appeals.

Briefs and record extracts	$25,894.42
Transcripts	10,248.48
Counsel fees	11,500.00

Additional costs not revealed by these figures include fees to trial counsel paid by the political subdivision of the court in which the case originated, as well as the cost of transcript of testimony paid by Baltimore City in all cases in which there is a motion for a new trial argued before the Supreme Bench of Baltimore City prior to appeal.

Of the appeals ruled on by the Appellate Court, ninety per cent were affirmed. The following chart details the disposition of the cases.

Dismissed prior to argument	11
Affirmed	64
Reversed	1
Reversed and remanded for new trial	2
Affirmed in part and reversed in part	3

Seventy per cent of the appeals went up from the Criminal Court of Baltimore City, the balance coming from eleven of the counties.

At this writing there are on the current 1961 docket of the Court of Appeals 52 criminal cases, 44 of which have been filed by indigents.

THE COURT CLERKS OF MARYLAND

(In Maryland there are twenty-nine Clerks of Court. Twenty-three are elected to four-year terms to serve in the Circuit Courts of the first seven Judicial Circuits while the remaining six serve like terms in the six courts of the Eighth Judicial Circuit located in Baltimore City. There is also a Clerk of the Court of Appeals who is appointed by the Court. A series of biographical sketches of the Clerks of Court will be carried in these Statistical Compilations.)

GRACE J. BARNES

CLERK OF THE CIRCUIT COURT FOR SOMERSET COUNTY

The Clerk of the Circuit Court for Somerset County is Grace J. Barnes. The only woman now serving in such capacity, Mrs. Barnes is the second woman to have held such a position in the First Judicial Circuit. In 1926 and for twelve years thereafter Miss Bessie Bowen was the Clerk in the Circuit Court for Worcester County.

Mrs. Barnes succeeded her husband, the late Benjamin Lankford Barnes, upon his sudden death in October 1957. Appointed to the post by the judges of the First Judicial Circuit, she qualified October 13, 1957, the oath of office being administered by the Honorable E. McMaster Duer. Not only has she filled the unexpired term of her husband, but at the general election in 1958 she was elected by the voters of Somerset County for a full term of four years.

Mrs. Barnes was first appointed to a position in the Clerk's office on November 1, 1944, and served continuously in various capacities in the office until she was named Chief Deputy Clerk on December 3, 1954. At the expiration of her present term, she will have completed approximately 18 years as a court official.

The Honorable J. Milliard Tawes, Governor of Maryland, in 1931, when he was Clerk of the Circuit Court for Somerset County, appointed the late Mr. Barnes a deputy clerk. Mr. Barnes continued to serve in the office without interruption, and in 1938 was elected as Clerk. He was elected to the office for the next four consecutive terms, holding the position until his death on October 7, 1957.

The daughter of the late George Benjamin and Carrie Boyce (Hunter) Johnson, Mrs. Barnes was born in Philadelphia, Pennsylvania, March 9, 1905. Later her parents moved to a farm near Snow Hill, and she was educated in the public schools of Worcester County. On June 19, 1928, she was married to Mr. Barnes, whose childhood home had been in Kings Creek near Princess Anne, Maryland.

A daughter, Diane Hunter Barnes, now married to Lieutenant Robert Wesley Graue, U.S.A.F., resides at Ann Arbor, Michigan. Lieutenant Graue, a native of Mexico, Missouri, and a graduate of the Naval Academy at Annapolis, is now doing graduate work in Aeronautical Engineering at the University of Michigan. The Graues have two children, Karla and Scott.

Mrs. Barnes is active in church and civic affairs in Princess Anne. She is also a member of No. 109 Order of the Eastern Star, of the Business and Professional Women's Club of Princess Anne, and of the Somerset County Historical Society. She serves on the Executive Committee of the Maryland Court Clerks' Association.

(In Maryland there are twenty-nine Clerks of Court. Twenty-three are elected to four-year terms to serve in the Circuit Courts of the first seven Judicial Circuits while the remaining six serve like terms in the six courts of the Eighth Judicial Circuit located in Baltimore City. There is also a Clerk of the Court of Appeals who is appointed by the Court. A series of biographical sketches of the Clerks of Court will be carried in these Statistical Compilations.)

CLERK OF THE CIRCUIT COURT FOR QUEEN ANNE'S COUNTY

T. SORDEN PIPPIN

First elected in 1950, T. Sorden Pippin is now serving his third term as Clerk of the Circuit Court for Queen Anne's County. His political career began much earlier, however, his first elected position having been that of Treasurer of Queen Anne's County, in which post he served four years following his election in 1942. He also served a four year term beginning in 1946 as a member of the State Central Committee. In each of three campaigns for the court clerkship he has had opposition, Mr. Pippin recalled.

The son of the late James C. Pippin and Cora L. Pippin, Mr. Pippin was born April 18, 1901 on the farm of his parents near Bridgetown in Queen Anne's County. Following his education in the local schools, he farmed with his father, until he obtained a farm of his own, which he operated until 1945 when he went into business. It was in that year that he opened a grocery store and subsequently expanded his operation to include farm implements and a feed mill. He sold his entire interest in this business in 1959.

T. SORDEN PIPPIN

Married April 21, 1923 to the former Sarah Alma Corsey, also from near Bridgetown, Mr. Pippin maintains a home with his wife near Centreville. They have three boys, Thomas, Carl, and Glenn. The work of each of his sons, Mr. Pippin said, has taken them away from home.

Referring to the courthouse in which his office is located, Mr. Pippin said that it originally was erected about 1794, and that although its interior had been altered from time to time, the exterior had remained without much change. The clerk's office is unique in that it has an entrance not only from the center hall of the building, but also one opening directly to an outside walkway.

(In Maryland there are twenty-nine Clerks of Court. Twenty-three are elected to four-year terms to serve in the Circuit Courts of the first seven Judicial Circuits while the remaining six serve like terms in the six courts of the Eighth Judicial Circuit located in Baltimore City. There is also a Clerk of the Court of Appeals who is appointed by the Court. A series of biographical sketches of the Clerks of Court will be carried in these Statistical Compilations.)

JOSEPH W. T. SMITH

CLERK OF THE CIRCUIT COURT FOR WICOMICO COUNTY

A career man with more than 43 years of service, Joseph W. T. Smith, Clerk of the Circuit Court for Wicomico County, has headed that office since 1944.

Since his original appointment as a deputy clerk April 27, 1918, Mr. Smith has been continuously employed in the office except for a period served in the United States Naval Reserve Force from August 9, 1918 to March 1, 1919.

After nearly ten years as a deputy, during which time he filled practically every position in the office, he became Chief Deputy, the appointment occurring December 1, 1927. He remained in this position until November 17, 1944 when he was appointed Clerk of the Court by the Judges of the First Judicial Circuit to succeed the late J. William Slemons, who died in office.

In the elections of 1946, 1950, 1954 and 1958 he ran for and was elected to the office without opposition in either the primaries or general elections.

During his career Mr. Smith has served under five resident judges, as well as some eight others of the First Judicial Circuit who presided in the Circuit Court for Wicomico County from time to time. During his early years as a clerk he worked in the old courthouse which had been erected in 1878. Now, however, his offices are located in the extensive addition which was built in 1936. The courthouse is again becoming crowded, Mr. Smith said, pointing out that the spiraling population of the county and its industrial development has resulted in a material increase in the work of his office.

Born February 23, 1897 in Allen, Wicomico County, the son of the late Andrew W. and Mary Elizabeth Smith, Mr. Smith was educated in the public schools of Wicomico County and graduated from the Beacom Business College in Wilmington, Delaware. He now resides in Salisbury at 302 New York Avenue, with his wife, the former Hannah Collier, to whom he was married June 7, 1930.

JOSEPH W. T. SMITH

A member of Asbury Methodist Church of Salisbury and its Chancel Choir, Mr. Smith also holds membership in the Wicomico Historical Society. His hobbies include fishing and boating, with a special interest in architecture and boat building.

As a result of this last hobby, Mr. Smith now tours the waterways adjacent to Wicomico County in his self-built 16-foot runabout. Built from a twenty-five cent set of plans, the boat was started in Mr. Smith's basement, later being moved to the garage as it grew in size. It took him three years from the laying of the keel to the launching. Construction is of three-eighth inch marine plywood and white oak laid over a three by five inch white oak keel.

Each joint and seam in the boat fits as though welded. Mr. Smith said a hand saw was especially useful in cutting the ribs, and that the most difficult part of the construction was bending the one and three-quarter inch gunwales. Pointing out that some builders insert the gunwale strips in a large piece of pipe filled with water and steam them by building a fire beneath the pipe, Mr. Smith said he fitted the gunwales on his boat by bending them a little at a time to the contour of the sides.

The entire bottom of the boat is floored and is in sections to permit inspection of the bilge. A bit of luxury is offered in the carpeting on the flooring. Perhaps the neatest trick of all is the canopy that can be raised over the operator and forward passengers with a flick of a rope. It lies flat on the forward decking when not in use. The craft is powered by a 35-horsepower motor equipped with electric starting and remote controls.

(In Maryland there are twenty-nine Clerks of Court. Twenty-three are elected to four-year terms to serve in the Circuit Courts of the first seven Judicial Circuits while the remaining six serve like terms in the six courts of the Eighth Judicial Circuit located in Baltimore City. There is also a Clerk of the Court of Appeals who is appointed by the Court. A series of biographical sketches of the Clerks of Court will be carried in these Statistical Compilations.)

W. HENRY GSELL

CLERK OF THE CIRCUIT COURT FOR KENT COUNTY

Four times elected against opposition, winning the last campaign by but nine votes. W. Henry Gsell is concluding his fifteenth year as Clerk of the Circuit Court for Kent County.

Long active in State, as well as County politics, Mr. Gsell has held public office for almost twenty-five years, his first position having been that of deputy sheriff for Kent County, to which post he was appointed in 1938 by Robert E. Lee, then Sheriff. Four years later Mr. Gsell was elected to the office of Sheriff and served one term, after which, in 1942, he was elected Clerk of the Court. Since then he has campaigned successfully in the elections of 1950, 1954 and 1958. During the last election, the first returns indicated he had lost, but subsequently when absentee ballots were counted, it developed he had won by a narrow margin. His present term expires in 1962.

The son of the late Joseph Gsell and Mary Elizabeth Gsell, Mr. Gsell was born July 29, 1912 at Marydel in Caroline County. In 1930 his parents moved the family, which eventually consisted of eight boys and one girl, to Kent County, where Mr. Gsell has since lived, attending the public schools and establishing his business.

W. HENRY GSELL

Married May 5, 1935 at Elkton, Maryland, to the former Catherine Kramer, also of Kent County, Mr. Gsell and his wife maintain a home on the outskirts of Chestertown. They have three children, the oldest being Joyce Ann, who resides in Rockville, Maryland, Katherine (Kay) Elizabeth, who is the mother of two sons, and Deborah, four years old. Rumor has it that youth rules the Gsell household.

In addition to his work, Mr. Gsell has been active in the community life and affairs of his town. In 1960 he was President of the Chestertown Lions Club, and is currently President of the Kent County Gun Club. He also holds membership in the Chester River Yacht Club, the Rock Hall Yacht Club, and Masonic Lodge #115, of Chestertown.

In addition to boating and also hunting in which he participates with enjoyment, Mr. Gsell is a leading exponent of skeet shooting with a nationally known reputation. In 1958 he was first in the Class B Competition at the Great Eastern Skeet Shoot at Bridgeport, Connecticut. This is an international shoot with entries not only from across the nation, but also from Mexico and several of the South American countries. He has participated in many other skeet shoots and holds numerous medals.

COURT OF APPEALS

Included among the 266 cases on the regular docket of the Court of Appeals are 76 criminal appeals. Of these, 67 (almost 90 percent) have been filed on behalf of indigent defendants with costs paid by the State. There being three months remaining during which appeals may be entered on the appellate court's 1961 docket, the indications are that criminal appeals will exceed the 82 filed in 1960.

Costs in these indigent defendant cases exceeded $50,000 last year. While the range was great, from less than $100 to more than $5,000 in one exceptional case, the average costs of brief, record extract and appendix, transcript, and counsel fee awarded in the appellate court, in each was approximately $650.00. Not included in this figure, of course, are costs paid at the trial court level.

(In Maryland there are twenty-nine Clerks of Court. Twenty-three are elected to four-year terms to serve in the Circuit Courts of the first seven Judicial Circuits while the remaining six serve like terms in the six courts of the Eighth Judicial Circuit located in Baltimore City. There is also a Clerk of the Court of Appeals who is appointed by the Court. A series of biographical sketches of the Clerks of Court will be carried in these Statistical Compilations.)

JOHN T. BAYNARD

CLERK OF THE CIRCUIT COURT FOR TALBOT COUNTY

The youngest man ever to be elected Clerk of the Circuit Court for Talbot County, John T. Baynard has held office since November 1946.

Although he now has participated in four campaigns, Mr. Baynard recalls that his first one was the most hectic, there having been five persons running for the Clerkship in the primary. He also had opposition in the General Election. By way of complete contrast, in 1950 Mr. Baynard ran unopposed in both the primary and general elections.

Prior to his election as Clerk, Mr. Baynard was employed in the Liberty Bank at Easton, and during 1940 and 1941 was Clerk to the Supervisors of Election. From September 1942 until September 1945, he served as a Boatswain Mate in the United States Coast Guard. Typical of many servicemen, Mr. Baynard cites with accuracy the exact length of his service - three years and fifteen days.

JOHN T. BAYNARD

The son of Katie Elliott Baynard and the late John Baynard, Mr. Baynard was born in the Chapel District of Talbot County, May 1, 1917. He attended the local schools and graduated from Easton High School in 1934.

Married to the former Sara Dawkins on September 27, 1940, he lives with her and their two children, Lili Kay, 16, and John T., Jr., 14, on the outskirts of Easton. The family attends the St. Mark's Methodist Church.

Golf, hunting and boating are the hobbies which interest Mr. Baynard. In reference to his golf, he maintained that he was "no expert - just a weekender - a nickel a point golfer".

Mr. Baynard also is active in community activities, being a Past President of the Easton Lions Club, a member of the Board of the Talbot Country Club, and a director of the Talbot County Chapter, American Red Cross. He also holds membership in the Miles River Yacht Club, the B.P.O. Elks #1622, the Coates Lodge #102, A.F. and A.M., and the Talbot Post #70, American Legion.

Since first taking office, Mr. Baynard said he had observed a gradual increase in the work of the court, and pointed out that the flat filing system which he instituted some years ago was one of the most noticeable changes. Recent renovations in the Courthouse resulted in the Clerk's office being assigned much needed space, not only for the staff, but also in the way of additional air-conditioned vaults for the storage of deeds, dockets and other records which Legislative enactments require to be kept intact.
